Medicus Insurance Company Announces Texas Rate Decrease

AUSTIN, Texas – Medicus Insurance Company (Medicus) is pleased to announce an overall 11% rate decrease for its Insureds in Texas. The Texas Department of Insurance approved the reduction in Medicus' filed manual premiums effective May 15, 2009.

Now in its third year of insuring physicians and surgeons in Texas, Medicus is proud to be able to offer better value to its Texas clients. In addition to the positive effects of tort reform, strong financial standing and spread of risk over 18 states have made the modification in Medicus' rates possible. Many physicians will see a reduction in premiums, and some will see even more significant savings, such as Emergency Medicine, Anesthesiology, and Orthopedic and General Surgery.

"Here in Texas, we have experienced the favorable impact of tort reform first hand," noted Jeff Weigl, Chief Underwriting Officer of Medicus. "The cost reduction we are able to offer varies by specialty, and is directly attributable to the passage of tort reform in 2003. Physicians and surgeons can now lighten one of their largest overhead expenses while continuing to enjoy the superior coverage and service Medicus provides," he said.

Bryan Bowdish, Director of Marketing and Sales continued, "Hundreds of physicians across Texas have already placed their trust in Medicus as a carrier responsive to the needs of the physician community. We are one of the fastest growing and largest medical professional liability carriers in Texas. We believe Medicus is the best value for physicians in Texas, offering excellent coverage, superior service and competitive premiums all in one package."
