Arkansas Insurance Commissioner Says Medicus is Just What the Doctor Ordered

Arkansas Insurance Commissioner Julie Benfield Bowman and Medicus Insurance Company Chairman Howard Lamb announced today that Medicus Insurance Company has been approved to write medical professional liability insurance in Arkansas.

“We are pleased to welcome a well financed insurance company with insurance expertise and medical leadership to support Arkansas physicians and their patients,” Commissioner Bowman said. “I am proud of the department’s initiative in seeking out strong competitors like Medicus to serve the people of our state.”

Medicus Insurance Company is a Texas domiciled insurance company specializing in providing Medical Professional Liability insurance to all physicians, surgeons and their ancillary medical providers throughout Arkansas. The company is capitalized with a $100 million facility backed by The Cypress Advisors and CHL Medical Partners. The Company has licenses to do business in 16 states.

“Medicus has been looking forward to serving the medical community in Arkansas. We are impressed by the medical expertise, favorable business climate and excellent regulatory environment in the state,” Mr. Lamb stated. “It was a pleasure working with the Insurance Department professionals who were helpful in getting our application approved.”

Medicus uses professional independent agents and brokers as its distribution system. It offers all its insured doctors professional risk management and loss prevention services with some of the best service and protection. Medicus is known for both its affordable rates and its ability to customize its insurance policies to the needs of physicians.
